—Wm. D. Schult, editor of the Daily Press, Caruthersville, Mo., died very suddenly Saturday night of brain fever caused by sunstroke. He was 36 years of age, and leaves a wife and two little girls.
—Capt. H. A. Tyler, who has been absent with a party of young ladies at Virginia Beach, Saratoga, and other pleasure resorts, returned home Sunday. Miss Marie Brevard, one of his party, returned Sunday morning. They report a delightful trip.

Plow Points.
Take your plow points to Geo. Buck, he will grind them 2 for 25c.
—The Hickman Bank has just put in a new Mosler Screw Door Safe. There is no record of burglars ever having succeeded in opening this make of safes, even with the use of nitro-glycerine, thus securing the perfect safety of funds against loss by fire or burglars.

—The net waist girl is dividing the attention of critics of dress with the shirt-waist man. In fact, she threatens to eclipse him altogether before the end of the summer. In the East the fashion is in full blast, and critics are about evenly divided as to the propriety of the innovation.

—Mr. W. M. McDowell, of Anthony, Florida, is corresponding with parties in Hickman in regard to moving his crate factory from Florida to Hickman. He expects to move his plant about January next. He uses cottonwood, elm, beech, &c., of which there is an abundant supply hereabouts.

Machine Repairing.
Mr. John Eiling can be found at Geo. Buck's machine shop, to repair anything in the machine line.

—Capt. J. C. Harris, the promoter of the Hickman and Tiptonville Levee enterprise, writing from Memphis, Monday, to Mr. R. T. Tyler, says that the Government engineers' report of the survey just completed is much more favorable than even the most sanguine friends expected, and that every reasonable encouragement that the Government will help has been given. In other levees the Government has never helped until the actual construction was commenced, and we presume the same will be true of the Hickman and Tiptonville Levee. If the Kentucky subscription is raised, work will commence in September.

LANDRUM ELOPEMENT.

Arrested and Carried Back to Tennessee.

[From Cairo (Ill.) Telegram.]
There arrived in Cairo last Wednesday a man, woman and baby who registered at one of the hotels as "Clarence U. Landrum and wife."

They came here in a horse and buggy which the man disposed of to Charleston parties.

Landrum, wife and baby paid their hotel bill yesterday after dinner and, purchasing tickets for Pine Bluff, Ark., boarded a Cotton Belt train, left the city. Little did they dream that an avenging Nemesis living at Elbridge, Tenn., had set to work the machinery of the law and that a sleuth was close upon their heels in the person of officer Jno. Crockett, of Glass, Tenn.

Officer Crockett arrived in the city after the pair had left, and ascertained in the space of an hour whither they had flown, wired Marshal John T. Davis a description and notification to hold "Mr. and Mrs. Landrum upon charges of adultery, horse stealing and kidnapping"—enough, Marshal Davis boarded the train at Malden, arrested and took the couple, including the babe in mother's arms, off the train and notified the Cairo end of the wire that he "had 'em, what shall I do?" Back went the answer from officer Crockett, "bring them here and I'll pay all expense."

A Telegram reporter, who had a quiet tip, met Crockett at the depot yesterday while awaiting arrival of Cotton Belt train with Marshal Davis and prisoners and obtained the following version of the affair which later was partially verified in an interview with the eloping couple themselves.

C. U. Landrum, aged 35, is a married man and the father of five children, and tiring of the affection of his wife made advances, which were well received, to Mrs. Alice Stanfield, aged 19, and the mother of the 12 months-old babe.

As there were most likely to be some emphatic objections on the part of Mrs. Landrum and Mr. Stanfield to their illicit love, the pair concluded the best thing to do was to "git." In accordance with this resolution, Landrum appropriated unto himself a horse and buggy, but it was not made quite clear to the reporter's mind who was the rightful owner, Landrum claiming them as his property.

In the rig the pair and babe drove away from Elbridge, Tenn., last Tuesday headed for Cairo. Upon arrival here Landrum sold the rig which supplied them with funds to continue their trip. Upon arrival of the Cotton Belt train at 1:30 yesterday out of the rear coach stepped the Malden marshal closely followed by his prisoners. Landrum in his shirt sleeves carried the babe.

The pair seemed jolly and laughed and talked with officer Crockett. They made no objections to taking the I. C. train which stood two tracks distant, and 15 minutes later were speeding on their return to their homes in Tennessee.

FORGIVE THE ERRING.

Elopers Brought Back and Reconciliations Effectuated.

Union City, Tenn., Aug. 21.—Constable John Crockett has returned from Malden, Mo., with Clarence Landrum and Mrs. Whit Stanfield, who left wife and husband respectively and eloped together. Both were very contrite and sorry for their escapade, and sought forgiveness of their lawful partners. There was a happy reconciliation. Mr. Landrum has left Elbridge with his family and it is the wish of the friends of all concerned that their future may be brighter and better.

Select Music School.

Miss Mabel French will open a Select Music School, at the residence of Mr. Thomas Dillon, sr., near Hickman College, commencing Sept. 10th. A share of patronage solicited. Miss French has had the advantage of the best musical training in the best schools of the United States.

How to Keep Cool.

Don't eat much meat.
Don't fret about the weather.
Don't walk around town looking for thermometers to see how hot it is.
Don't think about the heat.
Don't worry.
Don't experiment with mixed drinks that are calculated to upset your stomach.
Don't indulge in alcoholic drinks, but drink plenty of lemonade, iced tea and the like.
Don't wear heavy clothing, especially woollens.
Don't neglect to bathe freely. A cold bath every morning is the thing.
Don't overwork yourself.
Don't walk in the sun, and don't walk too lively on an oppressively hot day.
Don't let your temper get the better of you and overturn your system.
Don't allow yourself to become excited.
Don't drink too much ice water in the heat of the day.
Don't exasperate everybody you meet by asking, "Is it hot enough for you?"
Don't sit in a heavy draft to cool off while your body is wet with perspiration.

Caruthers' City Bakery.

Having leased the oven at the City Bakery and secured the services of Mr. Mayers to do the baking, am now prepared to furnish the people with fresh bread and cakes as we bake them fresh every day and will commence to run a bread wagon in a few days for the accommodation of our customers. Soliciting a share of your patronage, I remain, Yours truly
A. O. CARUTHERS.

A Trip Through California.

Mr. Walter J. Saunders, a son of Prof. Jas. H. Saunders, who has been living in California the past several years, writes a fine descriptive letter of a railroad trip through that State. He is an architect, employed by one of the railroads of that State, and has had charge of the planning and construction of all the depots and other railroad buildings. He is doing well, and is highly pleased with his new home. He is eminently qualified in his profession and will win success.

Napoleon and China.

When the first Napoleon was asked by some of his officers about conquering and ruling some of the provinces of China he said: "Better let China alone. The Chinese are harmless. They trouble no other nation but they are a great people. We might conquer some of their provinces, but we should teach them the art of war. In time they might raise great armies—buy or build great navies and conquer France."

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. It is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Cure guaranteed. Only 50c. Sold by all druggists.

An Island of Widows.

Off the coast of Norway is a small island called Aurlud, which boasts the unique distinction of being peopled exclusively by widows. The circumstances which this state of affairs were brought about are no less peculiar and distressing:

The island was populated by fishermen, 30 men and their families. These men were all drowned at sea whilst engaged in their calling. 28 of the 30 widows were left helpless and dependent, and the Government took charge of them and amongst other supplies deemed it necessary for their support and happiness, has sent a ship load of unmarried men to engage in the fishing industry.

The millinery jobbers announce that the styles are more elaborate, but prices more reasonable, than they were last spring. The man who pays the bills will in fear and trembling await confirmation of the announcement from the only incontrovertible source—the female members of his household.
